Urges Motorists To Purchase Auto Tags Now

Rowan County Clerk B. P. Day issued a request today that motorists purchase their 1936 auto tags now and avoid the final-days rush.

Day said that only 370 motorists, out of 2,000, had purchased license tags.

"Our office," said Day, "will attempt to accommodate the late applicants, but it may be necessary to stand in line for two or three hours."

The 1936 tags expire February 17.

Day said motorists should bring their 1936 license receipt with them when applying for the new tags.

Men are easily diverted from the truth by sly appeals to their emotions and most of them haven't sense enough to know that somebody is giving them the works.

Morehead-Eastern Game Attracts Fans Despite Weather

Ellis Johnson's Eagles played a top basketball game against Eastern Kentucky, and, with the aid of Sophomore Jack Baker's shooting, coasted to an 84-74 victory before a large crowd that attended the game despite the icy roads and rain.

During the first half, Morehead grabbed an early lead and held onto it, leading 41-40 at the half. After that the Eagles quickly ran away with the score and led the game until the final gun.

Jack Baker was high man for Morehead with 33 points and Jess Maybabb was second with 17. This was one of the best basketball games ever to be played on the Morehead floor.

Morehead is upping its standing in the Ohio Valley Conference. The Eagles beat Berea College Tuesday night in a superb game. The boys have shown much skill in their latest games and it appears likely that any team facing them in the future will have lots of worrying to do.

Eagles Win One, Lose One In Week's Games

Morehead didn't look so good in dropping a 65-59 game at St. Xavier of Louisville in a tilt played at Mayville during sub-zero weather that kept the crowd down to 800. The Eagles did everything wrong in the first half and were behind 37-21 at intermission. They did come back to make a game of it in the second half.

In an uninteresting battle the Morehead Eagles toppled Berea 68-71 Tuesday night. It was a mediocre performance on the Eagles' part. In fact, Morehead might have lost to Berea if Don Miller hadn't entered the game with 18 minutes to play and poured through 18 points. Miller showed more life on the floor than the entire team did.

Morehead High and Breckinridge Training School draw in separate brackets for the district high school basketball tournament to be played in the Morehead College gymnasium Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 28, March 1, 2 and 3.

Telford Gevedon's Vikings drew a bye and have only to beat the winner of the Salt Lick-Owingsville game to reach the finals and the 16th regional.

Breck is a prime favorite to coast through the lower bracket. Their first opponents is Haldeman and if they defeat the Leopards they will have a battle of it against the Eagles, who are favored to win the district crown.

The pairings, as announced this morning by Monroe Gevedon, tournament manager: Upper Bracket: Morehead High (bye); Salt Lick vs. Owingsville, Feb. 28. Lower Bracket: Sharpsburg vs. Bethel, 7 p. m.; Breckinridge vs. Haldeman, 8:30 p. m., Thursday, March 1.

Final: 8:00 p. m. Saturday, March 3.

Wicker said that admission for all games except the finals would be 25 cents for students and 75 cents for adults and for the final 50 cents for students and 75 cents, or the same price, for adults.

During the Christmas season Boys Jewelry store offered a Christmas watch to the student writing the best letter to Santa. Ann MacMasters' paper was chosen as winner among thirty-three pupils.

She is Ann's winning letter: Dear Santa,

Santa, maybe I am a little bit too old for you to give me what you are the spirit giving which makes most of us love to see Santa. I want something that is on a ferra wheel.

A Ferris Wheel, my dear girl. On Wall Santa let me explain. It is on a tiny metal ferris wheel. On Santa's jewelry window. On each seat of the wheel sets a Gruen Watch. On Santa, they are beautiful. They have both the men and women Gruen watches and I want the ladies' watch because I think I am a girl. They gleam like a million dollars. Their beautiful clear crystals and gold numerals and hands.

Santa, you may want to know why I want a Gruen watch. I want to begin with, it is just an average American Gruen watch. I would like to have a Gruen watch. When I looked in the jewelry window, I wondered why he would have Gruen Watches instead of some other brand. I asked him, 'Also, I wondered why it should have on the case, "Gruen Precision Watch." I decided to look into the matter.

I started asking my friends who owned Gruen Watches what they liked about them and if they would like to own again what they have owned. Gruen. All but one liked their Gruen watches and said they would trade them for any other watch. This person who did not like her Gruen watch said it did not keep good time but I learned later she was not the watches fault. She was not with her watch on and it is not a waterproof watch. My answer to her is to take her Gruen watch and wash it. It is not a waterproof Gruen Watch.

I told her to go over again with her watch on and she would see it was not so convenient and yet not in his way while she was wearing it.

A librarian liked his watch because it was such a low soft watch. I told her about something as modern as a tick of a watch in a quiet room.

A clockmaker likes his watch because it kept such accurate time. I think you can see his point.

A young college girl liked her watch because it looked so nice when she went out for parties and to the dance.

So you see, Santa, I am a little bit too old for you to give me what you are the spirit giving which makes most of us love to see Santa. I want something that is on a ferra wheel.

The Name Seems To Fit Anyone

Mrs. Pete Dillinger of Ontario, Calif., has a problem. Her little Gruen watch is so beautiful that it is baffled about its sex and so is Mrs. Dillinger.

The four acts like a rooster in the morning, strutting about the chicken run and crowing lustily at dawn.

Later in the day, the congealed bird usually lays an egg. Some days it is eggless, but at times are bona fide hens.

Mrs. Dillinger, who raised the freak from a chick, at least has solved the problem of what to call the pet. It's named "Nellie-Sam."

I asked a businessman why he liked his Gruen Watch. He replied, "It's a Precision Watch." This brought up my other point so I asked him just what he meant by a Precision Watch and he said, "Well if you look precisely in a dictionary you will find the definition—accuracy of limitation and adjustment. Watches are so small and delicate there is a limitation to what can be put in it and the adjustment can be made in them. The Gruen Watch is the one watch made in this way."

Santa, the Gruen Watch has precision, has a soft quiet tick, is a good timekeeper, it is beautiful and delicate, it is convenient, these are the qualities I like about it. I would like to have it at home and school with me and if you knowing that at all times I would have the correct time, I want a Gruen Watch, the Precision Watch.

Sincerely,
A Junior

Hello! This is Mr. Kentucky speaking.

I had some Breckinridge Training School students travel right through the heart of me Saturday, January 15.

Sponsored by Mr. G. T. Young, the Kentucky History Class, they were here before daylight Saturday morning on a bus for Kentucky history tour.

They were on their first stop at Owensville where they saw the Owensville house. This was the home of Colonel Thomas Owens, whom Owensville is named for. Inside the house the students saw the spiral staircase and the spiral staircase is very interesting.

The next stop was Mt. Sterling and the scene of "Bill's Defeat," a hand-to-hand struggle with the British in 1792. The students saw the Battle of Little Mountain.

They then made a visit to Ashland, the fine old home of Henry Clay. The history of this house is so interesting that it is a must for anyone visiting Kentucky.

Frankfort comes next with its wonderful Old Capitol and the history of Kentucky limestone. The most unusual thing in this building is the spiral staircase. It is a must for anyone visiting Kentucky.

At Danville they visited the grounds of the "Constitution Square" including a golf course, ball and church. In this place the Kentucky's first constitution was framed and adopted.

The next stop back at Morehead late that night. This is one trip I will never forget for I am proud to be a Breckinridge Kentucky History students have learned by seeing.

Bobby Lowe won first prize in the Prevention Fire contest for the fifteenth district. Bobby is in the Eighth Grade. Second and third prize winners were Phillip McBrayer and Lynn Evans of the Sixth Grade.

On Friday, January 15, the Sixty-Grade gave a program at the Breckinridge Auditorium. The original plan, based on their study of ancient Greece, was directed by Mr. William Cann, student teacher.

The individual characters in the play were Debbie and Rickie, played by Lynn Evans and Buddy Smith. Debbie went to sleep and dreamed that he had been in the market place of Athens where he learned much about Greece. His sister, Debbie, was with him in the dream.

The other boys and girls of the class were Greek citizens of various ranks in order. Patricia Love and Linda Caudill, Jr. B. Black, and Jimmie Wells, all owners, Clara Joy, Kentucky, and Billy Joe Ellis; children, Katherine Lowe; philosophy, Gay Garred, Donna Danner, and Bayless, and Yvonne Johnson, artists; John David Bach, Bernice Kuersteiner, Danny Pierce and Bernice Kuersteiner, Gene Kuersteiner, Jim Ed Wyatt, and Phillip McBrayer.
